

communicating the value of industry leading technology solutions

Mainstay's value-based sales and marketing services help uniquely position your solution and shorten sales cycles.

In today's business world, smart enterprises are scrutinizing each new investment with an eye to securing real returns, tangible savings, and competitive edge. That means quantifying the business value of every project and solution you invest in or sell. And that's where Mainstay can help.

Communicating Business Value

For over 20 years, the team at Mainstay has pursued a unique passion—understanding and communicating business value. Over the years, we've partnered with some of the world's most admired and profitable technology enterprises with the aim of clarifying, quantifying and realizing the true value of their solutions, products, and services.

Mainstay has developed a full range of value-analysis sales solutions and marketing agency services that empower our clients to make smarter, faster business decisions, and maximize their investment, as well as create demand and fill their sales pipeline.

Value Analysis Sales Tools and Marketing Agency Services

Whether you're an early-stage SaaS or F500 enterprise technology firm, Mainstay equips you with the marketing assets, demand gen campaigns and sales tools to succeed and grow your business.

■ Go to Market Strategy

Mainstay develops the overarching marketing strategy to ensure the best approach, content and delivery channels.

■ Demand Generation Campaigns
